

Emancipation Records of Harvey and Rachiel Cook

Granville Co., NC –1825

Below are three records obtained from the State Archives of North Carolina.
(CR.044.801 – Granville County – Miscellaneous Records – Miscellaneous Records of Slaves and Free Persons of Color, 1755-1871)

This is a verbatim transcription, including all spelling errors, punctuation, and words crossed out. The names were hard to decipher, “Rachiel” was obvious, but Harvey was only clear in a few places. In all three documents, Harvey looked like “Nanny,” “Hanny,” “Harry,” and “Henry.” In the petition, however, it was very clearly “Harvey.” Also, William Hunt’s signature had a flourish on the end. Where letters are superscripted (raised and a bit smaller), these were added into the text as corrections by the person who wrote these documents originally. My own notes and suppositions of what something said are in brackets. The petition was very hard to read in places
